Arriving late at school can be disruptive for the class and teachers - it can also create unnecessary anxiety in your child.

So far this year children have lost 693 days of learning between them for taking unauthorised time off of school.

This is the same as 3.5 children not attending school for the whole year.

Please take your holidays during the allocated school holidays.

Absence levels

How do you measure up?

'Good attendance is a learned behaviour'

Did you Know...?

The Government doesn't set specific attendance targets but an attendance rate of 95% is generally considered good; this allows for children to miss 9.5 days across the whole school year.

Persistent absence (PA) is defined as an attendance rate of 90% or below.

Look out for
